INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff came into contact with Defendant, a debt collector. On or about August 19, 2011 the Defendant contacted the Plaintiff via US Mail with a notice of an alleged debt that was owed. On or about August 23, 2011 the Plaintiff sent a letter of dispute and debt validation letter to the Defendant via certified US Mail Return Receipt # 7007 2680 0002 0292 9099 which the Defendant received on or about August 31, 2011. To date the Defendant has failed to validate the alleged debt as was required by law.

Count I against the Defendant Under FDCPA

Failure to validate the alleged debt/account: Failure to provide proof of alleged debt/account. Initial contact on or about August 19, 2011.

§ 809. Validation of debts 15 USC 1692g, in part:

(a) Within five days after the initial communication with a consumer in connection with the collection of any debt, a debt collector shall, unless the following information is contained in the initial communication or the consumer has paid the debt, send the consumer a written notice containing—

(1) the amount of the debt;

(2) the name of the creditor to whom the debt is owed;

(3) a statement that unless the consumer, within thirty days after receipt of the notice, disputes the validity of the debt, or any portion thereof, the debt will be assumed to be valid by the debt collector;

(4) a statement that if the consumer notifies the debt collector in writing within the thirty-day period that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed, the debt collector will obtain verification of the debt or a copy of a judgment against the consumer and a copy of such verification or judgment will be mailed to the consumer by the debt collector; and

(5) a statement that, upon the consumer's written request within the thirty-day period, the debt collector will provide the consumer with the name and address of the original creditor, if different from the current creditor.

- (b) If the consumer notifies the debt collector in writing within the thirty-day period described in subsection (a) that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed, or that the consumer requests the name and address of the original creditor, the debt collector shall cease collection of the debt, or any disputed portion thereof, until the debt collector obtains verification of the debt or any copy of a judgment, or the name and address of the original creditor, and a copy of such verification or judgment, or name and address of the original creditor, is mailed to the consumer by the debt collector. Collection activities and communications that do not otherwise violate this title may continue during the 30-day period referred to in subsection (a) unless the consumer has notified the debt collector in writing that the debt, or any portion of the debt, is disputed or that the consumer requests the name and address of the original creditor. Any collection activities and communication during the 30-day period may not overshadow or be inconsistent with the disclosure of the consumer's right to dispute the debt or request the name and address of the original creditor.
- (c) The failure of a consumer to dispute the validity of a debt under this section may not be construed by any court as an admission of liability by the consumer.
- (d) A communication in the form of a formal pleading in a civil action shall not be treated as an initial communication for purposes of subsection (a).

Plaintiff demands Judgment in the amount of $1000. To this date Defendant failed to respond to Plaintiffs debt validation letter, received on March 16, 2012 in a timely manner as required by law. Defendant willfully and negligently failed to have proper procedures and apparatus in place which would promptly and accurately delete alleged debt upon being notified of the errors.

Count II against the Defendant Under FDCPA

The Defendant has violated the FDCPA and the Plaintiffs rights under the law Plaintiff has disputed and asked for validation of the alleged account with the Defendant in a timely manner as required under FDCPA. Defendant falsely represented the character, amount, or legal status of any alleged debt.

§ 807. False or misleading representation 15 USC 1692e(2) in part:

A debt collector may not use any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection or means in connection with the collection of any debt. Without limiting the general application of the foregoing, the following conduct is a violation of this section:

- (1) The false representation or implication that the debt collector is vouched for, bonded by, or affiliated with the United States or any State, including the use of any badge, uniform, or facsimile thereof.
- 2) The false representation of_
 - (A) the character, amount, or legal status of any debt; or

82 § 813. Civil liability 15 USC 1692k in part:

- 83 (a) Except as otherwise provided by this section, any debt collector who fails to comply with any
84 provision of this title with respect to any person is liable to such person in an amount equal to
85 the sum of (1) any actual damage sustained by such person as a result of such failure;
86 (2) (A) in the case of any action by an individual, such additional damages as the court may 87 allow, but not exceeding $1,000; or
88 (B) in the case of a class action,
89 (i) such amount for each named plaintiff as could be recovered under subparagraph (A),
90 and
91 (ii) such amount as the court may allow for all other class members, without regard to a
92 minimum individual recovery, not to exceed the lesser of $500,000 or 1 per centum
93 of the net worth of the debt collector; and
94 (3) in the case of any successful action to enforce the foregoing liability, the costs of the action,
95 together with a reasonable attorney's fee as determined by the court. On a finding by the
96 court that an action under this section was brought in bad faith and for the purpose of
97 harassment, the court may award to the defendant attorney's fees reasonable in relation to the
98 work expended and costs.

99 Plaintiff demands judgment in the amount of $1000. This is for the erroneous and inaccurate
100 amount of alleged debt.

Count III against the Defendant Under FDCPA

101 The Defendant attempted to collect on an alleged debt from Plaintiff, a violation of the FDCPA.

102 § 807. False or misleading representation 15 USC 1692e(5) in part:

103 A debt collector may not use any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or
104 means in connection with the collection of any debt. Without limiting the general
105 application of the foregoing, the following conduct is a violation of this section:

- 106 (5) The threat to take any action that cannot legally be taken or 107 that is not intended to be taken.

108 Plaintiff demands a judgment in the amount of $1000. This is for Defendant's failure of factual
109 deficiencies, as opposed to legal error, after being notified by the Plaintiff a belief that what is 110 false is true or that what is true is false.

Count IV against the Defendant Under FDCPA

111 The Defendant has violated the FDCPA and the Plaintiffs rights under the law Plaintiff has 112 disputed asked for validation of the alleged account with the Defendant in a timely manner as 113 required under FDCPA.

114 § 813. Civil liability 15 USC 1692i

- 115 (a) Except as otherwise provided by this section, any debt collector who fails to comply with any 116 provision of this title with respect to any person is liable to such person in an amount equal to
 117 the sum of (1) any actual damage sustained by such person as a result of such failure;
 118 (2) (A) in the case of any action by an individual, such additional damages as the court may allow,
 119 but not exceeding $1,000; or
 120 (B) in the case of a class action,
 121 (i) such amount for each named plaintiff as could be recovered under subparagraph (A),
 122 and
 123 (ii) such amount as the court may allow for all other class members, without regard to a
 124 minimum individual recovery, not to exceed the lesser of $500,000 or 1 per centum
 125 of the net worth of the debt collector; and
 126 (3) in the case of any successful action to enforce the foregoing liability, the costs of the action,
 127 together with a reasonable attorney's fee as determined by the court. On a finding by the
 128 court that an action under this section was brought in bad faith and for the purpose of
 129 harassment, the court may award to the defendant attorney's fees reasonable in relation to the
 130 work expended and costs.

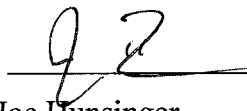

131 Plaintiff demands judgment in the amount of $3000.00. This is for Private Attorney General fees
 132 for Plaintiff, Pro-Se.

Summation

133 Plaintiff has disputed the alleged account with the Defendant. And therefore Defendant has 134 violated the Plaintiff's civil rights and damaged the Plaintiff both monetarily and emotionally.
 135 Defendant cannot claim a bona fide error in this matter. Examples of a bona fide error include 136 clerical, calculation, computer malfunction and programming, and printing errors, except that an
 137 error of legal judgment with respect to a person's obligations under FDCPA is not a bona fide
 138 error. Defendant made an error in its attempt to collect an alleged debt from Plaintiff.
 139 Defendant was willfully and grossly negligent in ignoring Plaintiff dispute and validation letter.
 140 Must Plaintiff send the Defendant a hundred dispute and validation letters, at six dollar and some
 141 change each, to pierce the bona fide error defense and prove that noncompliance was intentional?
 142 Plaintiff had contacted the Defendant in an attempt to mitigate his losses but was shunned from 143 further communication by defendant's attorney.

144 WHEREFORE, the Defendant has violated the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and the 145 Fair Credit Reporting Act, Plaintiff demands judgment in the amount of $6000 for their
146 violations of the FDCPA, plus all cost of this action along with punitive damages in the amount
147 of $500 or as the court may allow, an apology from Defendant for trashing Plaintiffs civil rights,
148 along with Private Attorney General fees as prescribed by law Graziano v. Harrison, 950 F. 2nd
149 107, 113 (#d Cir. 1991), 15 U.S.C. sec. 1692k(a)(3), (see Zagorski v. Midwest Billing Services,
150 Inc., F. 3d---(1997 WL 695401, 7th Cir.) or 128F. 3d 1164 (7th Cir., 1997).

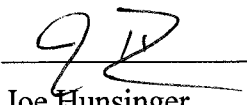

Respectfully submitted August 16, 2012.
